Dear Resident

You may have recently received a communication from the Mayor of Campbelltown City Council (CCC) regarding their proposal to review the boundary with Adelaide Hills Council.

What stage is the CCC boundary change proposal at?
The proposal is still in the consultation phase but, if in the future the boundary commission decide the proposal should go ahead, your property would become part of the CCC. Consideration by the Boundary Commission is an ongoing and lengthy process.

The recent CCC communication sent to property owners in Woodforde and Rostrevor contained information about council rate comparisons. Please note this comparison excludes the Regional Landscapes Levy.

What is Adelaide Hills Council's position?
You may recall that following CCC initiating the boundary review in early 2019, we (Adelaide Hills Council) hosted a community meeting in Rostrevor on 3 September 2019 and subsequently conducted our own survey of property owners and occupiers in November of that year. The response was clear with 65% of respondents indicating a preference to remain part of Adelaide Hills Council. Having considered that result, we resolved not to support the change and to ask the CCC to stop the review process. Despite our request, CCC is determined to press on with the review process.

What can you do?
Shortly CCC will be sending you a survey from McGregor Tan research asking about your thoughts on the boundary change proposal. We urge you to have your say on boundary reform by completing the CCC survey.

When considering your responses, should you have any queries about Adelaide Hills Council's services, your rates or the way your area is managed, I invite you to:

- contact us on 8408 0400 or mail@ahc.sa.gov.au and we would be pleased to assist
- visit Council's dedicated Boundry Change Proposal Page at engage.ahc.sa.gov.au
- You are also welcome to contact elected members directly to discuss any queries you have regarding the boundary proposal and you can find their details at ahc.sa.gov.au

I assure you that we value your opinion and feedback and will continue to represent the views you have expressed to us.

Yours sincerely

Nathan Daniell
Acting Mayor
